

We, the scholars working in the Project “Melancholy in Medieval Europe”, hosted by the Babeş-Bolyai University, Cluj-Napoca, Romania express our solidarity with the people of Ukraine.

We are working on history of Medieval philosophy and culture. Our duty is to constantly search for the truth, to stay critical, to remain human. In these last days, Ukrainian people made a huge statement of courage and humanity.

Left by everyone, they did not despair. Attacked, they showed incredible resilience.

Bombarded by propaganda and fake information, they remained united and pushed back with a display of unity, courage, and truthfulness.

In times like these, staying silent amounts to staying complicit with the aggressor. We stay behind all people of Ukraine and Russia who fight the invasion of Vladimir Putin in Ukraine, in the ways they have at their disposal.

March 1st, 2022

Dr. Dr. Evelina Miteva, PI of the project

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'E. Miteva'.

Dr. Ile Vlad, Research assistant

A handwritten signature in purple ink, appearing to read 'Ile Vlad'.

Dr. Mario Loconsole, Research assistant

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Mario Loconsole'.

Dr. Marilena Panarelli, Research assistant

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Marilena Panarelli'.

Lavinia Grijac, Research assistant

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Lavinia Grijac'.