

international workshop

Judges and justice

Cluj-Napoca, 18 mai 2016

1st, M. Kogalniceanu street, first floor, room Blaga

Program

Convenors: Andrea Annamaria Chiş, Ion Copoeru

12.00 – Opening

12. 20-13.00

Monique CASTILLO (Faculté des lettres, langues et sciences humaines, Université Paris-Est)

opening lecture: The judicialisation: a solution and a problem (La judicialisation, une solution et un problème)

13.00-15.30

Emilian CIOC (Faculté de Droit. Université Babes-Bolyai de Cluj-Napoca/ ESPO, Université Catholique de Louvain)

La raison artificielle de la compétence juridictionnelle

Flavius MOȚIU (Cluj Commercial Court)

The Judge between multidisciplinary and specialisation

Emőd VERES (Faculty of Law, Sapientia University of Cluj-Napoca)

Judge or Arbitrator – A Short Comparison

Roxana DAN (Târgu-Mureş Municipal Court, Faculty of Law, Babeş-Bolyai University of Cluj-Napoca)

Le role social du judge: perspectives nationale et europeenne

Dana GÂRBOVAN (Cluj Court of Appeals, president of the Union of Romanian Judges)

The Independence of the judge in the service of the citizen

15.30 – 16.00 Break

16.00 - 18.00

Daniel MORAR (Romanian Constitutional Court)

The authority of the constitutional judge to verify the constitutionality of the „interpretation” given by the courts of law

Eveline CIOFLEC (Forum Scientiarum, Eberhart Karls Universitat Tübingen/ Romanian Society of Phenomenology)

Epistemic responsibility in political judgment

Ion COPOERU (Center for Applied Philosophy, Babes-Bolyai University of Cluj-Napoca)

Fifty shades of guilt: an analysis of the disciplinary jurisprudence of the Romanian SCM

Andrea Annamaria CHIŞ (Cluj Court of Appeals / Faculty of Law, Babes-Bolyai University Cluj)

The Judge as a creator of the law

16.00 – 18.40

Adrian-Paul ILIESCU (DIRESS, University of Bucharest)

closure lecture: The judicial duty to give reasons. A 'heroic' mission of the judge?

18.40 – 19.00

Closing remarks